Diversity and Inclusion Forum for Faculty and Staff

Education Series
Understanding the Role of the Ombudsman in Constituent Advocacy

Date: Tuesday October 14, 2014
Location: Olin Library Conference Room 142, Level 1
Time: 12noon-1:30pm

Brownbag Presentation and Discussion about Ombudsmen and the Office of the Ombuds at Washington University in St. Louis

Speakers

Linda Nicholson,
Susan E. and William P. Stiritz Distinguished Professor of Women's Studies, Professor of History, and Faculty Ombuds for the Danforth Campus, Washington University in St. Louis

Karen O'Malley,
Professor of Neurobiology and Faculty Ombuds at the School of Medicine

Dr. Elzbieta Sklodowska,
Randolph Family Professor of Spanish and Ombudsperson for Students in Arts and Sciences

For additional information contact Cheryl Holland at cholland@wustl.edu or DIFFS@wustl.edu
Find us on Facebook, DIFFS at WUSTL

With Support Funding from the Office of the Provost