

WashU Olin
Business School

AT THE GATEWAY

From Zero to Breakthrough<sup>TM</sup>

A BREAKTHROUGH MENTALITY CREATES A BREAKTHROUGH LIFE!

A presentation by Vernice “FlyGirl” Armour, America’s first African American Female Combat Pilot

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2019

7:30–9:30 A.M.

WASHU OLIN BUSINESS SCHOOL, EMERSON AUDITORIUM

Breakfast and Networking 7:30 to 8:00 a.m. / Program 8:00 to 9:30 a.m.

REGISTER TODAY

Acknowledge obstacles, don’t give them power. This presentation helps you put passion back in your life and design the path to your dreams with a “Breakthrough Mentality.” Be inspired by FlyGirl’s personal story of setbacks, challenges, adventure, success and triumph. FlyGirl takes you on an amazing journey through her life experiences and, most importantly, the lessons learned. She candidly discusses confronting bias and its impact, and the importance of diversity and inclusion and belonging. Be sure to attend this dynamic presentation to unleash the personal leadership power needed to take your life to the next level.

---

Sponsored by WashU Olin Business School’s Graduate Programs, the Calhoun Lecture Series and Diversity and Inclusion Programs.

---

The Calhoun Lecture Series showcases well-known and important leaders to discuss how their value system and global experience have impacted their business environment.